The Australian High Commission in Chanakyapuri, New Delhi, serves as Australia's premier diplomatic mission in India. Located in the heart of Delhi's diplomatic enclave, it plays a key role in strengthening bilateral relations between the two nations across areas such as trade, education, defence, culture and people-to-people exchanges. Its modern infrastructure and active engagement reflect Australia's long-standing commitment to building a strong and dynamic partnership with India.

We are pleased to announce the successful completion of a turf tennis court project at the Australian High Commission in Chanakyapuri, New Delhi. This facility has been created exclusively for the Commission's internal use, adding a high-quality recreational and training space within the premises.

For this project, our team supplied and installed TigerTurf Advantage, a premium sports surface known for its superior play characteristics and durability. Along with the turf, we also installed a pair of premium tennis poles and a high-quality tennis net, ensuring that the court is fully equipped and ready for gameplay.

TigerTurf Advantage is an advanced tennis and multi-sport surface engineered to elevate player performance. It provides excellent traction, consistent ball bounce and a balanced pace, allowing advanced players to perform at their best while offering an ideal training surface for developing athletes looking to refine their skills. This elite surface boasts high ball bounce, is ITF medium/fast, all-weather and highly durable offering up to a decade of play.

The court was officially inaugurated on 16th November, marking the successful completion of yet another prestigious installation. Here's to our love of the sport!
